

Anti-slavery and human trafficking statement

Rev 2
Date: 23 Jul 2020

1. Policy

The Drive DeVilbiss Healthcare Ltd group of companies prohibits slavery, forced labour and human trafficking of any kind in relation to our business operations and our supply chains. We support the promotion of ethical business practices and policies to protect workers from any kind of abuse or exploitation in relation to our group businesses and supply chains.

2. Our Group of businesses

We are a one of the leading manufacturers and distributors of durable medical with manufacturing and distribution centres around the UK. Our group includes the following businesses:

- Drive DeVilbiss Healthcare Ltd (the Company)
Manufacturer and distributor of durable medical equipment, mobility products, respiratory and sleep aids, pressure care products and beds.
- Drive DeVilbiss Sidhil Ltd
Manufacturer of specialist pressure care products, hospital and community beds.
- Specialised Orthotic Services
Manufacturer of specialist seating and mobility aids.

3. Communication, compliance and risk assessment

In the last year we have taken the following steps in relation to our policy on anti-slavery and human trafficking:

All companies within the group have continued to communicate our company policies:

ADM-PO-01 SHEQ policy Rev 22
ADM-PO-06 Ethical policy Rev 8
ADM-PO-07 Anti-slavery & human trafficking policy Rev 5
ADM-PO-25 Whistle blowing policy Rev 5

These policies are also available for our employees to view on 'The Wire'; our company intranet site.

The policies are issued to existing and new suppliers along with our standard purchasing terms and conditions. Within the standard purchasing terms and conditions adhering to these policies is a condition of trading with the Company.

Social Accountability 8000 (SA8000) management is integrated within the Company's management systems manual.

In August 2017, the Company were externally assessed by SGS for LSAS compliance against the SA8000 Social Accountability Standard and attained LSAS Level 1.

In December 2017 the Company attained LSAS Level 2.

In relation to the group's assessment of risk, we are retrospectively assessing our suppliers in the UK and overseas. Where necessary overseas suppliers are required by the Company to complete our LSAS questionnaire or provide social compliance reports, as a check on compliance with local laws and regulations including labour practices. Most of our products are imported into the UK by the Company are sourced from overseas. These are mainly machine manufactured goods as opposed to labour intensive handmade products.

4. Breaches

In the event of any suspected failure by a supplier to comply with our Policies, we will investigate the circumstances with the supplier.

In the event of any breach of the policy being identified as a result of such an investigation, we will review what appropriate remedial action we require the supplier to undertake and also determine, on a case by case basis, whether our trading relationship with that supplier should be monitored, suspended or terminated.

5. Our commitment

We will continue to strive to find effective ways of improving communication and adherence to ethical business practices and assessment of risks and always welcome feedback from all stakeholders in relation to our business. Our policies, procedures and approach to verification processes are geared toward what we think are balanced and reasonable, practical and effective.
